

First Time Home Buyer

First Home Guide helps the first time home buyer find and purchase real estate and homes. Using our first time home buyer program and our free first time home buyer seminars, we help you prepare for one of the biggest events in your life. First Home Guide Inc. continues to develop relationships with real estate agents and mortgage companies who are experts at helping first time home buyers purchase real estate or a home. First Home Guide also offers a first time home buyer seminar in many cities. If you are a first time home buyer and you are interested in working with a real estate agent click here or if you would like to be pre-qualified for a mortgage, please click here or call 612-869-9966. First Home Guide is currently in every state including: Minnesota first time home buyer and Arizona first time homebuyer and California first homebuyer.

First Time Home Buyer Loans

While First Home Guide is not a mortgage company, mortgage broker, or mortgage lender, we do have relationships with mortgage companies who are experts at first time home buyer loans, and at helping first time home buyers get qualified for a mortgage and purchase their first home. Use our how much house can I afford calculator. Our participating mortgage loan officers can give you access to many different types of mortgages and mortgage lenders. The advantage to the first time homebuyer is that our mortgage partners can find you a loan, even if you have less than perfect credit or have no money for a down payment. Depending upon credit score and how much you have for a down payment, we have many types of loan programs to meet your needs. If you would like more information on a first time home buyer program and how to get pre-qualified, please click here or call First Home Guide at 612-869-9966.
